

The Organizing Committee of the Second Meeting of the Mediterranean Section of the International Plato Society

regrets that, due to financial problems, the colloquium originally scheduled for Chania, Crete, 26 September-2 October, has been postponed. The committee is currently working to find new financing and a new location and date for this meeting, on the same issue.

Nonetheless, an international conference on the same topic will be held in the Centre of Mediterranean Architecture in Chania 26th-30th of September organized by an IPS member, Dr. Sylvana Chrysakopoulou.

For all information, please contact her at chryssyl@yahoo.com.